Members of the faculty and staff:

We'd like to inform you that WHRC, Haverford College Radio, is now broadcasting over the internet.

You can tune in and listen to students as well as fellow members of the faculty and staff.

For now, this is a limited stream. We previously said that there would only be 10 listeners allowed, but thanks to Academic Computing's generosity, we have 53 streams available. Next year, we will have UNLIMITED!!

There are still a few kinks in the system, so please bare with us. Once you get to the page, click on the words "Listen Now." If you have Quicktime already installed, everything should be dandy. If not, you will need to download and install Quicktime using the link to the right of "Listen Now".

All of that said, here is the link! You can also find the schedule of shows on the web page!

<http://students.haverford.edu/whrc>

Hope you enjoy your listening experience,

The WHRC Board:
